

EXQUISITE INTERIOR

List GC amongst the crème de la crème at the Monaco Yacht Show

List General Contractor from Bad Erlach in Austria specializes in exclusive interiors for motor and sailing yachts

Vienna/Bad Erlach, October 11, 2018 – Every year in late September, when everyone who's anyone in the world of superyachts and luxury living gets together in Monaco, the show would not be complete without List General Contractor (List GC) from Bad Erlach in Lower Austria. This family business employs 230 people and is one of the world's leading specialists in exquisite interiors for luxury sailing and motor yachts.

The Monaco Yacht Show is the largest and most important event in the yachting world – for owners and shipyards, designers and outfitters. From September 26 to 29, 580 exhibitors presented displays for around 36,400 interested visitors. More than 120 superyachts anchored in Monaco for the 2018 show. This year was List GC's 16th appearance at Monaco's prestigious show. The company is a general contractor and offers a complete service: from design, project planning, manufacturing and installation to turnkey hand-over of exclusive interior solutions.

“Face the SpecialIST in you”

A passionate commitment to excellence in craftsmanship and skilled engineering, combined with an innovative approach to clients' design wishes and preferred materials are what distinguish List GC, now run by the third generation of family members. True to the company's traditions, the focus at the trade fair was on constructive relationships and discussions with partners, suppliers and clients. The company's motto for Monaco was: “Face the SpecialIST in you.”

List GC's Managing Director, Theresa Ludwiger-List, says: “Complex projects creating high-quality interiors need a whole team of ‘SpecialISTS.’ That includes not just our own highly qualified in-house experts, but also our partners, suppliers and clients. Only then can we create something truly extraordinary and fulfil our clients' wishes down to the finest details.”
